

Use Coaching Conversations to Become a More Effective Leader

Have you ever worked with employees who can't seem to make progress no matter how much advice and information you give them?

Coaching is a great skill set to add to your management skills to help your team members achieve bigger and better goals. Participants in this hands-on workshop will get the opportunity to practice coaching, including asking effective questions and active listening.

What you will learn:

- When and how to apply coaching to your role as a manager
- The power of asking the right question at the right time
- Help your team members create bigger and better goals by using the SMART system

Participants will experience the benefits of coaching first-hand. Leave with new skills that you can take back and apply to your job immediately.

Length:

90 minutes to 2 ½ hours
